DEDICATION

As we, the Seniors of 1926, are finishing our four years of study and companionship, we may look back upon a friendship, whose enjoyment is delightful, and whose patience is untiring. This friendship is extended to all who meet her.

As an appreciation of her help in making our school undertakings always successful, this book is dedicated with loyalty and affection to

FOREWORD

The Maroon Staff, in behalf of the Senior Class, presents, in this, the sixteenth volume of the "MAROON".

We hope that the book is a mirror to reflect the life of Elgin High, particularly of the Senior, as a bright spot of sunshine in the years to come. And to you, teachers and students, who are reflected in the grinds, attribute any distortion you may find to a slight convexity of the mirror at this point, and try a grin to replace it.

Finally, we earnestly thank every person, who has helped to make this book worthy of our Alma Mater.

Signs of Spring

One who claims to know all about it,
Tells me this world is a vale of sin,
But I and the bees and the birds, we doubt it,
And think it's a world worth living in.

—Wilcox.

A Bird's Eye View

Earth has not anything to show more fair.
The river glideth at his own sweet will;
And all that mighty heart is lying still.

Behind the Bars

IN MEMORIAM

HELEN LOUISE ROMEIS

Died January seventeenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

The death of Helen took from our class a girl of splendid character, ability, and ideals. Every one who knew her valued her friendship highly, and her passing away was an irrevocable loss to the whole school.

PAUL VINCENT ABBOTT

Died August twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

Another shadow was cast upon the class with the death of our fellow student, Paul. His smile and personality gained him many true friends, who will always mourn his unexpected death.

APPRECIATION

In order to show our gratitude for their helpful suggestions, actions, and friendships shown during our high school careers, we the Maroon Staff of 1926, devote this page as an appreciation to

THE HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1926

The career of the Class of '26 in the Elgin High School has come to a close after four years which were successful in the various phases of high school life. When two hundred and thirty-six enthusiastic young Freshmen entered in 1922 they looked forward to the time when they would bear the name of "dignified Senior". Now that time has passed, and all too swiftly, perhaps, for those who were busied in the activities of the school.

As Freshmen they showed their ability in claiming honors, by winning a silver cup, in the Banking contest. Outside of this there were no other important events during their Freshman and Sophomore years, but whenever there were any activities such as basketball and football games, parades, and reading contests, they were alert in boosting the project.

The Junior year made up for the other two, and started out with a "whizz-bang" by selecting the following officers: Hayward Biggers, president; ElRoy Gromer, vice-president; and Eleanor Lea, secretary. The first problem which confronted the class was the choice of the class colors, and when the Juniors appeared before Christmas in their navy blue sweaters with copper letters, remarks suggested that they had used good judgment in their selection.

In every class there is one big question to be dissolved, "how will the money be raised?" Their solution during their Junior year was a series of sandwich sales, a movie, and the class play. The latter, "Seventeen", a comedy by Booth Tarkington, proved to be a great success, and swelled the treasury. In the annual "Big 7" Reading Contest, Elgin was represented by two members of the Junior class, and in the Declamation contest by one member. In both contests honors were brought to the school by these pupils winning places. The Junior year was brought to a close with a picnic held at Pottawatamie Park.

At last their ambition was fulfilled, that of being "dignified Seniors", and they entered with enthusiasm. New leaders who were to pilot the class through the last year were chosen, with Lloyd Vonckx, president; Francis Howard, vice-president, and Elizabeth Sorn, secretary.

The entire class formed a Booster Club, which had Clifford Gustafson for president; Helen Wing for vice-president; and Myron Pritchard for secretary, as its officers. They have been very helpful in supporting the class, as well as the school projects.

The Class of '26 is proud to have a good number of members on the basketball, football and track teams, and also to be well represented on the honor roll during the past four years, especially during their Senior year, when they headed the list for each month.

Now as they leave the Elgin High School after four years of preparation for the future, it is hoped that as each one follows his path he will look back upon these years and receive an inspiration to attain higher ideals, and then realize their fulfillment.

THE MAROON STAFF PROGRAM

The Maroon Staff program was one of the most successful put on by the students during the past year. It was original and held the interest of all who saw it. The large book which represented the "Maroon" was made up of pages of great importance such as the dedication, faculty, music department, athletics, and baby pictures. Certain people who appear on these pages, in the real Maroon, posed for this substitute to give the students an idea of how the completed annual will look.

Each section was presented by a member of the staff with a short explanation of the contents and purpose of it. Of course the dedication page was blank with a curtain drawn over it. The purpose of this was to arouse curiosity as to whom it was dedicated, and make everyone more eager to get their Maroon.

Following the program subscription names were collected. The success of the program was due to the hard work of the committee which was made up of Maroon Staff and Senior class members. Philip Dakin was chairman and responsible for the unique idea of presenting the "Maroon".

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1923 a very fine and enthusiastic looking group of boys and girls entered Elgin High; they were called Freshmen. They soon found their way around and entered into the activities of Elgin High.

In their Freshman and Sophomore years they had fine looking floats in the homecoming parades. They also furnished members for the bands which were started that year.

They have helped the football teams to all their victories and the basketball team to two state championships.

The officers they chose for their Junior year were: Robert Wagner, president; Lorraine Schlager, vice-president; Lucile Cotton, secretary. They chose brown and gold for their class colors and were able to have their sweaters before Thanksgiving. They have had many series of sandwich sales which proved very successful.

The Junior class play was done very well and brought forth talent from the class.

Here is to a big and successful Senior year.

Lucile Cotton, Secretary.

THE CLASS OF '28

SETTING—Elgin High School
CHARACTERS—The Class of '28

ACT I

TIME—1924-1925.

The freshies of '24—the class of '28—enter Elgin High School and, after much whispering and commotion, settle down to their studies. They enter willingly, into many school activities and make a good beginning by decorating a large float in the Homecoming parade.

Both boys and girls take their place in sports and show good sportsmanship and give us promise of future stars in all the games.

In a Freshman reading contest the dramatic ability of the contestants is displayed.

Two outstanding members of the cast are Orval Cooper and Royal Fisher, who are representatives of the Freshmen in the Student Council.

ACT II

TIME—1925-1926.

After a refreshing vacation the class of '28 returns to school, but now it has advanced one step up the stairway of learning and is called the Sophomore class. Since the class is older and knows the way of school life, the boys and girls show great progress in their studies and are not so disturbing, although they could be more attentive and not so boisterous.

Athletics now claim much attention from the Sophs. The boys go out for many sports and show themselves worthy to be on the teams. The girls also make a name for themselves by winning the interclass volleyball championship.

With the aid of Hazel Wicklund and Orval Cooper, representatives of the Sophomore class, the Student Council puts out a handbook, the first of its kind to be issued in Elgin High School.

Having succeeded in putting over these first two acts, the cast of the play entitled "The Class of '28" hopes also to make a success of the two following acts. We hope with all our hearts that the class may attain its high goal, graduation from Elgin High School.

MARIE COLDEVIN, '28.

CLASS HISTORY

In January, 1925, the Elgin High School received one hundred and forty-two incoming Freshmen. In September these Freshmen welcomed two hundred and fifty-nine more who came to get the knowledge offered by Elgin High, and to help form the Class of 1929.

The girls took an active part in all athletics, a subject in which they were greatly interested. The girls had a hard gripping game for the Interclass Basketball Tournament which they won.

All the boys who had received grade school football training joined the High School teams, but of course they were not heavy enough to play in the big games.

The class elected Richard Dalbey and Robert Lowrie to represent them on the Student Council.

All clubs gave the Freshmen a hearty welcome, which made them feel at home and very happy in their new surroundings.

Hail to Class of '29, Freshies '25.

May success always be their aim.

May success crown their future.

GERTRUDE MUNCH, '29.

WHAT THE COACHES HAVE TO SAY

In our interscholastic program, at Elgin High School, football comes the nearest to satisfying the popular idea that is confronting, not only our community, but the country at large, "Athletics for all".

By the constant accumulation and care of equipment, we are able to give at least seventy-five boys training in football throughout both Spring and Fall seasons and the fact, that it is a strenuous outdoor sport, is probably the greatest reason why it has long been the most popular of major sports in not only colleges and universities, but in the high schools of the United States. No doubt the next greatest reason for its unrivaled popularity is the fact, that it is played on a large athletic field, where it is possible for great numbers to witness the contest.

The intense interest in the game, the fact, that it is possible for great numbers to play the game and the very keen competition which our well organized conference of long standing affords, makes it necessary to conduct very intensive training with both our major and minor teams in the Spring as well as in the Fall of the year.

Realizing that experience makes the player, as many boys as possible, regardless of age or weight, are urged to take part in the game in the Spring of the year. This is especially true with the boys who are just entering High School because it has been our custom to give a boy one year experience, on our minor team or on the major squad before he is placed on the major team. Of course, if a boy is gifted with unusual athletic ability, regardless of size he plays with the majors.

Making a survey of the material on our teams in the Fall, during the last few years shows, that the nucleus of both teams is composed of the boys who took part in football during the preceding Spring. This shows the value derived from their early training and the necessity of having it.

Our teams last Fall were very successful, not only in the winning of games, but a fine spirit of cooperation between the team, coaches and the school was shown and the boys were a group that Elgin High School was glad to have represent them. The minors lost only a few games while the majors won all but one.

Our material for next year, of course, is in the making and although a number of players graduate from the major team, just as large a number, who are young in the game this year, were carried on the squad throughout the season. They should come to the front next season together with some who will move up from the minor squad. The same good Elgin High School spirit, that put winning teams on the field this year, will do the same thing next year.

M. E. Wilson.

HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL

Elgin High School 1925-1926 Heavyweight Basketball team completed the hardest schedule ever undertaken by the Elgin High School. They played the best teams in Northern Illinois and Chicago. The regular playing schedule consisted of fifteen games, seven of which were with Big Seven schools. Elgin was successful in thirteen of the fifteen games. In the Big Seven Conference Elgin tied for first place with five games won and one lost.

After the regular playing season Elgin entered the State High School Basketball Tournament. They easily won their four district tournament games that were played at Dundee, scoring 109 points to their opponents' 58 points.

In the Sectional Tournament held at Joliet the Maroons went to the semi-finals and lost to Joliet by the close score of 15-14. The State Tournament had 640 teams start and Elgin was one of the last sixteen to remain.

Considering the loss of Captain Mills, All State Center and Captain, and Andy Solyom, one of the best guards in High School circles, and also Carl Ackemann, high point man of the conference from last year's lightweight team, at the end of the first semester, the team made a record that any High School would be proud to claim.

C. E. Adams.

TRACK

The growth of track athletics has been nothing short of phenomenal. Ten years ago there were only two large meets for high schools in this section of the country. Now, scarcely a week end goes by, but what some high school, college or university stages an interscholastic meet. Even in our own locality the popularity of track has increased greatly. A few years ago Elgin had the Kane County and Big Seven Track Meets to look forward to. This year there were nine meets scheduled and the boys have been looking forward to those meets with interest as it offers them a chance to match their skill and speed against each other. Next year there will be more interest displayed. The fruits of this year's labors will be realized and the name and reputation of Elgin High School will continue to be that of a leader.

Elgin had one of the most successful seasons in years, losing but one game, and that by three points. The heavies finished second in the conference and worked off some old grudges against Rockford and the Auroras. They scored 107 points to their opponents 19, which shows the defensive strength the squad had. Their offensive operations were hampered by the bad weather that prevailed during the games especially those against Freeport and Rockford. Elgin had a strong, well-balanced team, and Captain Tenney, Mills, Gromer, and Morley were mentioned for all conference honors.

FOOTBALL SEASON

FERRAN

Elgin opened the season against LaSalle-Peru. The big downstate team proved a strong foe, but Mills toe won the game for Elgin, 3 to 0.

Our next game was with Wendell Phillips, the team we had defeated 49 to 0 the year before. This time they gave our boys a real scare, but "Ga-Ga" repeated his performance of the previous week and Elgin was the victor, 3 to 0.

The conference season opened with Elgin at East Aurora. It was a hard game with numerous lost opportunities on both sides, but Elgin returned victorious, 7 to 0.

Coach Fletcher's Wildcats from West Aurora were our next opponents. Ability to follow the ball won the game for Elgin, when Captain Tenney picked up a fumble and ran for a touchdown. Rudinger broke his collarbone in this game and it proved a serious handicap to the team.

A large crowd followed the team to Freeport, in a driving rain. Although outplayed, Freeport won when Bere ran 30 yards for a touchdown. Mills scored Elgin's points in the first half, but lost many other opportunities to score.

Elgin ran wild over DeKalb, 40 to 0. Morley really got started in this game and the rest of the gang played some of the snappiest football seen on the Maroon field.

Elgin defeated its ancient rivals, Rockford, under the worst conditions a game has ever been played in Elgin. Tom Morley wallowed his way through six inches of snow, mud and water for two touchdowns.

Our final conference game was with Joliet and we defeated the prison city bunch, 24 to 0. Mills and Morley played the best game of their lives and the score should have been larger.

The Maroons played a post season game against Englewood, runnerup in the Chicago league. Althcugh outplayed in the first half, they came back in the final period with a strong aerial attack and fought to a 7 to 7 tie.

EARL TENNEY

Captain Tenney, playing his fourth year of conference football, proved himself to be one of the greatest centers in conference history, an able leader, a tower of strength on defense and always on top of the ball. He was an all-round linesman.

CARL KERBER

Kerber is one of the hardest hitting and tackling backs in the Big Seven conference. "Cully's" play was always a feature of the game and he should be a good leader.

DOUGLAS MILLS

Mills was our quadruple threat man who could run, kick, pass and catch passes to perfection. "Gaga" was placed on the all-state team by many critics.

ANDREW SOLYOM

"Andy" was a handy man to have around for either tackle or end. His size and ability made him an excellent end.

CAPTAIN-ELECT KERBER

ELROY GROMER

Gromer, playing his third year for Elgin, was a mainstay in the line. "Dino" was an all-conference man and showed it by his playing.

HARTER KIRKPATRICK

Harter alternated with Herb Martin at a guard position. He played consistently throughout the season and was a scrappy linesman.

HENRY RUDINGER

"Hank" played regular tackle early in the season and bid fair to become a crack linesman. In the West Aurora game he broke his collarbone and was out the rest of the season.

FLORA

PHILIP DAKIN

"Phil", our hefty tackle, played regular after Rudinger was taken out. He distinguished himself in the Freeport game by recovering a fumble on their ten-yard line, which led to Elgin's points.

ROY FLORA

Flora played at both end and backfield positions. He played commendably wherever he was placed and was a valuable asset to the team.

HENRY ANDERSON

Anderson played a steady, rugged game at guard and was rarely substituted for. He should develop into a great player next year.

HERBERT MARTIN

Martin came from Joliet where he played lightweight football. He won a regular place with the majors and played a steady game at guard.

ELMER SMITH

"Smitty" our midget coming from the lightweight team, made a regular berth with the heavies and played like a veteran.

DON FERRAN

Although Ferran was only a Freshman he made good on the heavies and as he has three more years he should prove to be a whiz.

HAYWARD BIGGERS

Biggers, after having bad luck last year, came back and played an end position very creditably.

TOM MORLEY

"Tom" was perhaps the greatest plunger in the conference. He was rarely stopped and was always good for three to five yards whenever needed.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL

Captain R. Wagner

In Steve Coutchie's second year here he turned out one of the best pony outfits ever seen. The standard of lightweight football has been pulled up very greatly since Steve started coaching here. The team closed the season with five victories, three defeats and a tie. Captain Wagner, Lea, Hallet and Kochis were mentioned as all-conference material.

The lights' first game was with the Sandwich reserves. The score was 2 to 2.

In the next game they ran the Rochelle reserves ragged to the time of 34 to 0.

West Aurora was put out of the way by a score of 10 to 0. The game was featured by passing.

At Freeport Elgin was out-rushed by a heavier and mud-cleated Freeport team. The final count was 20 to 0.

In the next game the ponies defeated the Barb City Midgets, 3 to 0. Johnson and Kochis starred.

On that terrible day the Rockford boys defeated the lights, 6 to 0. Good football was impossible and the result would have been different on a dry day.

The gang went to Joliet determined to do or die. They did and with Kochis playing a stellar role, defeated the Joliet's lights, 13 to 0.

The ponies played a post season game with Mooseheart and were defeated, 13 to 2.

HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL

CAPTAIN DOUGLAS MILLS

"Gaga" is probably the most finished basketball player that ever exhibited his skill in the E. H. S. gym. Besides averaging over 10 points a game, his dribbling was perfect and his passing and defensive work superb. He also proved his ability as a leader. We wish him the best of luck in carrying on his career at college.

The Maroons entered the season with a great record from the last two years to uphold. Under Coach Adams tutelage they finished their regular schedule with thirteen victories and two defeats, and later reached the semi-finals in the sectional tournament at Joliet.

The team started the season with three regulars from last years state champ aggregation. They were later handicapped when Mills, Solyom, Church, and Ackemann were lost by the ninth semester ruling. With but two weeks rest and practice from the football season the Maroons took into camp four of the best teams in Chicago. Austin, Harrison, Crane and Hyde Park were the victims. The squad hit a snag when they journeyed to New Trier and came home with the short end of a 30-28 score. The gang were decidedly off and New Trier played over their heads to win.

The team showed their class in the first conference game by defeating the much touted Joliet quintet 32-13. They next won an easy victory over West Aurora 31-15. Captain Mills, supposedly "ill", was the star. The strong Rockford quintet arrived here for the next game, a non-conference tilt. The game was close, but Elgin was never headed and won 28-22.

The next game was the one to which the Elgin fans looked forward most—Freeport. Before a howling mob that packed the gym, as it has seldom been packed before, Elgin took one of the most hectic games ever seen on the E. H. S. court. Although the Pretzels led at the third quarter, the boys kept their heads and won by a sensational comeback 22-17. Freeport was later state champ.

The next week the ninth semester prospects were given a chance to prove their ability, and did it very nicely, whipping East Aurora 41-21. The following eve was the last game for the 8th semester men, and they gave their best to help Elgin beat Oak Park 29-16. It certainly was hard to see Captain Mills and the boys go.

The team next journeyed to DeKalb for a conference game. It was exciting and hard fought, Elgin winning in an over-time game 37-28. The game with Waukegan was called off on account of the scarlet fever ban. The Maroons were seriously handicapped in their practice for the Rockford game by this ban.

A victory at Rockford would have given Elgin a clear title to the conference championship, but it was not forthcoming. Lack of practice told on the Maroons and they lost 25-14. In the last game of the regular season, Elgin beat Dundee 28-19.

BASKETBALL—THE MEN

ROY FLORA

Roy was an all-conference and all-tournament man. He was a hard, clever player with an uncanny eye for the basket. He usually came through when a deciding basket was needed. Roy should go over big at college.

CARL ACKEMANN

"Cook" was another nine semester man who won his letter through his deadly eye for the wicket. Although Carl was not a regular, he got into most the games and his basket shooting ability won him the sobriquet, "two basket Ackemann".

BOB SLAVIK

"Bob" was a handy man to have around. He played at a guard position and the same fighting spirit that Jerry had was inherent in his brother. "Bob" got in many of the games and always gave the best he had.

ROBERT WAGNER

"Bob" was another dependable reserve to have around. He was a steady consistent player and heady teamwork featured his play. He was a hard worker and as one fan expressed it "always on the run".

EUGENE JONES

Jones came out for basketball a new, green man. However, his speed and ability at center soon won him a place on the squad. He was in his prime at the tournament and proved himself a star. He has two more years and should be a "whiz".

CAPT. JERRY SLAVIK

It was Jerry's fighting leadership that carried Elgin through many a game after the ninth semester closed. Jerry finally found his calling at back guard when he played prowess almost equal to "Solly's". He made up in fight and skill what he lacked in size.

BASKETBALL—THE MEN

HAYWARD BIGGERS

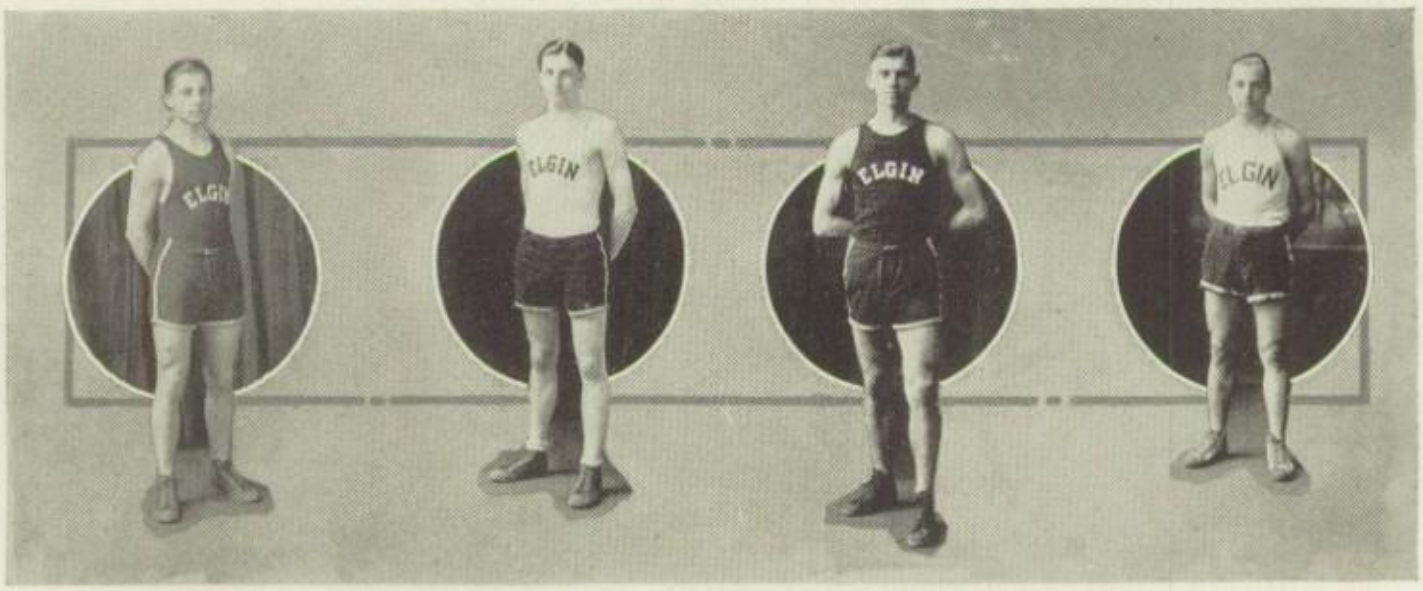
Biggers overcame his well known hard luck this season and played some pretty basketball. His cleverness and good shooting eye stamped him as a star. His best work was at Joliet where his stellar playing crossed the admiration of the critics.

ANDREW SOLYOM

The calibre of Andy's playing was that which is seldom seen in college circles. Although handicapped by a bad knee, his playing could not be equalled anywhere in the state. As soon as the ninth semester closed he entered college and began playing basketball.

GEORGE KOCHIS

At the end of the regular season, Adams decided he needed another good guard who could work the ball down the floor. He called "Kochy" from the ponies to fill this position. George came through and his speed, light guarding and floorwork featured the tournament play.



FRANK KOCHIS HAYWARD BIGGERS ANDREW SOLYOM GEORGE KOCHIS

THE TOURNAMENTS

Elgin entered the District Tournament at Dundee with a new, untried team. Kochis had been taken over from the lightweights and worked into the new combination. Elgin met strong opposition in the first game with St. Charles, but won rather handily, 26 to 13. The next night they defeated Harvard, 36 to 23. The subs got a chance in this game. In the semi-finals they met an unexpected obstacle in McHenry. The game was in doubt at all times, but the old Elgin fight won, 16 to 14. In the finals they ran over Crystal Lake, 31 to 8, showing greater form than the most optimistic Elgin fan had looked for. Flora, Slavik and Biggers were placed on the all-tournament teams.

Elgin went to Joliet, backed by a big crowd and with hopes of another state championship. They ran rings around the Big Hinckley team, 29 to 15, and earned a place in the semi-finals. The Maroons did not show the form of the night before, but Elgin would have undoubtedly beat Joliet if not for a bad break in the last quarter. The score was 15 to 14. Too much cannot be said of the work of Captain Slavik and the team.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL

Captain "Doc" Schlager

The lightweights went through a successful season, winning eleven games and losing four and finishing second in the conference.

In the pre-conference games the lights defeated Austin, Harrison, Hyde Park and Crane Tech., but suffered the same humiliation as the majors at New Trier, losing 22-25.

In the first conference game they defeated Joliet by the close score of 16-15.

At West Aurora the whole team was given a chance as the score was 22-5.

Rockford defeated the ponies here; although Elgin led most of the way. Score, 26-22.

The team got revenge on Freeport by defeating them 27-21 in the pony scrap.

East Aurora was an easy victim, the score being 31-17. The lights were showing some classy basketball.

Oak Park was defeated 28-18. The game was better than it sounds.

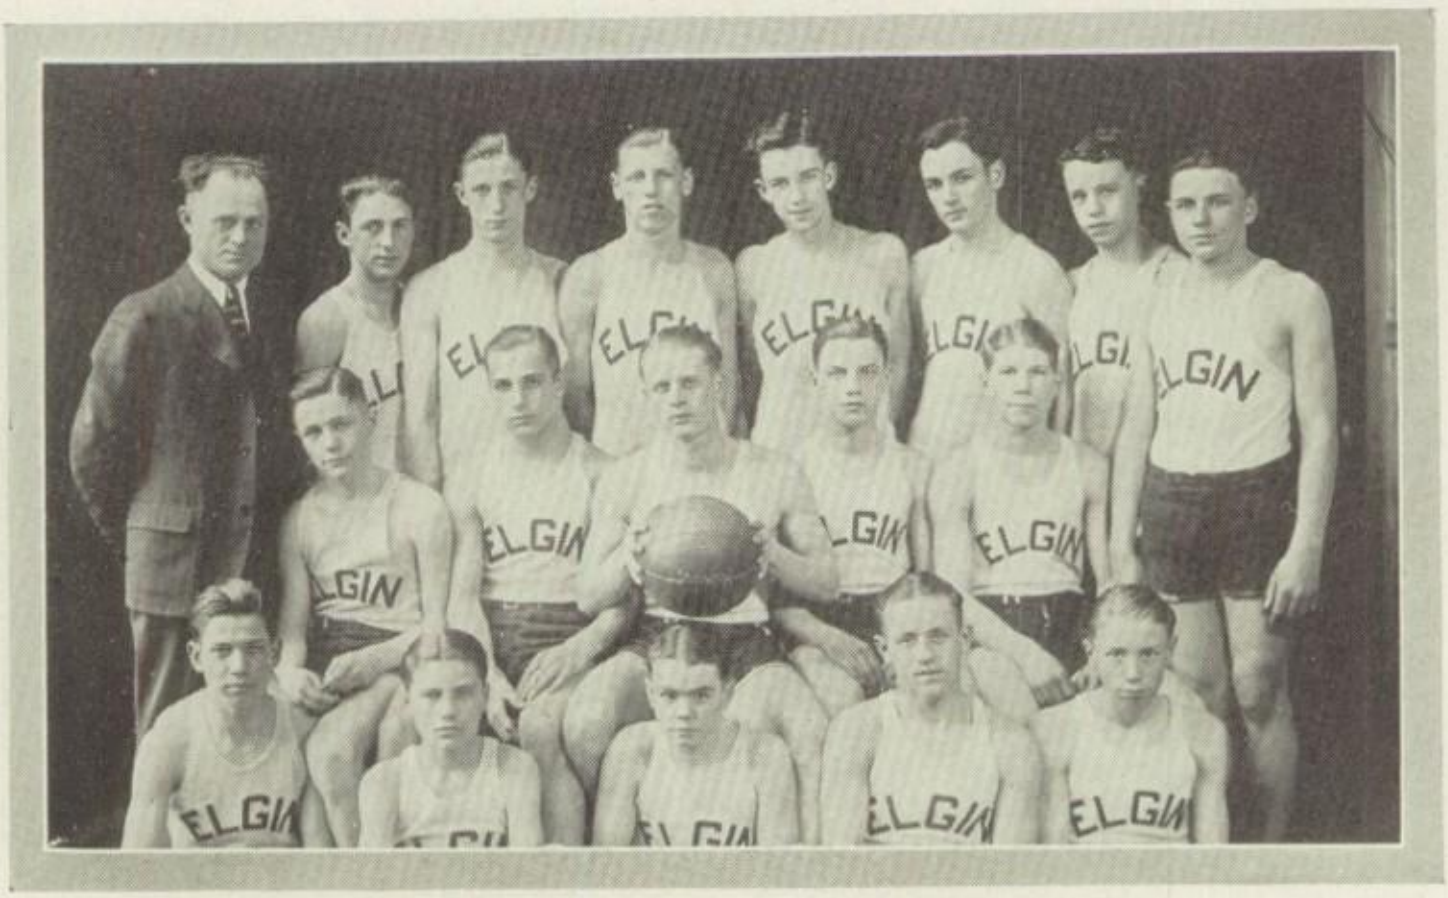
The lightweights journeyed to DeKalb to play the strong Barb ponies in a crucial game. The DeKalb lights proved too strong and won a hard fought game, 19-12.

The next week the Ponies ran over Dundee by a score of 25-2.

A rally in the Rockford game in the last few minutes of play fell short by three points and Elgin was defeated 17-14.

In the final game Coach Wilson used a new quintet which easily defeated Dundee, 23-12.

The pony aggregation was a fast, fighting aggregation that were always in the running until the final whistle blew. Kochis and Captain Schlager were later drafted to the tournament squad. There was a majority of underclassmen on the squad which sounds well for Elgin's future teams.



Track

TRACK

Captain Edson Perkins

Because of the fact that the Maroon goes to press before the track season opens it cannot very well report on the success of the team. It seems safe to say, however, that Coach Coutchie's men are on their way to a third consecutive conference championship. The Elgin track teams in the last few years have made the best records in Northern Illinois scholastic meets, which is something we should be proud of.

The one peculiar thing about track is that although a major sport, it is very poorly supported. To students who have watched track meets, no football or basketball game is more exciting than seeing the events of a Big Seven meet. The fact of the matter is that the meets are rather slow and lack the competitive spirit of the other major sports. A great step forward has been taken by the Illinois High School Athletic Association in providing for state track meets, starting this year. The plan to be followed is very similar to that of the basketball meets. There will be sectional tournaments in the various sections and the winners will compete at Urbana for the state title.

If Elgin places high in the Big Seven meet they can be expected to take the sectional at Aurora. Led by Captain Perkins the Maroons have reliable point getters in Jones, Weideman, Swan, Pfister, Spurrier, and Kelley. There are quite a few underclassmen out this year, and if they stay out, Elgin should have some great teams in the next few years.

BASEBALL

Our Great American game, baseball, is as much played and as well liked by the girls of Elgin High School as it is anywhere by any group in the Union. Not many years ago, baseball, as played by girls, was laughable. Today, however, girls can pitch curves, knock "homers", or bunt as well as any member of the sterner sex.

This fact can be accounted for in a number of ways. For one thing, girls today are given more opportunity to display their athletic prowess. Their instructors are more efficient, and this fact alone has stimulated and encouraged the girls to such an extent that much progress has been made in all athletics for girls. Moreover, the modern girl is not the type to be frightened at seeing a ball whizzing toward her. She is stronger in mind, in body, and consequently, her nerves are more steady.

CAPTAINS

BETTY CUTTER	Senior
BARBARA LASHER	Junior
RUTH SCHNEFF	Sophomore
FRANCES BEVERLY	Freshman

CAPTAIN BALL

Sixty-two girls participated in the color tournament held to determine the champion Captainball team. It developed that the team ably led by Iona Frautnicht was the laurel-winner.

Captainball is a fast-moving, breath-taking game that requires rapid thought, true basket aim, and a tense, alert brain. It develops the muscles in the shoulder, back, arms, and legs.

The game is preparatory for basketball, and is not regarded as a major sport.

The captains of the other three teams were Vivian Kinsley, Elizabeth Miller, and Helen Phillips.

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball, the game for any and every girl, had a good number of recruits this year. Seventy-eight girls played in enough games to earn letters for the sport.

The popularity of this first sport of the season can be explained by the fact that no one girl is burdened by an over-abundance of individual activity or responsibility. The game requires and develops team-work and alacrity of response.

In the inter-class championship tourney it was the team-work and alertness of the Sophomore team that gave it the victory.

CAPTAINS

Virginia Muhr	Sophomore
Lois Arnold	Freshman
Helen Kern	Junior
Dorothy Robinson	Senior

Top Row—Reid, Rahn, Fehrman, Gustafson.
Bottom Row—Badendick, Bellows, Captain Muhr, Nelson, Krogsrud.

HOCKEY

Hockey is the girls' autumnal sport as football is the boys. It is played in an open field, and hockey clubs and hard rubber balls are used. The game is faster, rougher, and requires more practice and skill than any other girls' sport.

After hard and faithful practice the Seniors won their games with the Freshmen and Sophomore teams and at last defeated their truly formidable opponents, the Juniors.

Helen Palm, the Senior captain, Betty Cutter, her center, Elizabeth Sorn, Helen McMahon, Virginia Jewett and Eleanor Lea deserve especial praise and recognition for their splendid work during the season.

Top Row—Wing, Fredricks, Cutter, Anselman, Jewett, McMahon.

STUNT GROUP

A group of rolling, tumbling, acrobatic girls make up the new department of athletics, the Stunt Group. Much appreciation was shown by and much enjoyment given to the students of Elgin High when the Stunt Group performed their antics on the Auditorium stage.

Some of their stunts are: the head-stand, hand springs, cart wheels, sommer-saults, floor dip, Eskimo-roll, camel walk, diving, knee spring, human ball and parallel bar gymnastics.

Top Row—KOWITZ, HUTTER, LASE.
Second Row—GOUGH, KILLEEN, HARLAN, JAMES.
Bottom Row—MITCHELL, THUMS, WYMANN, BEARD, WEICHEL.

BASKETBALL

As in every other sport this season, the number of girls who were partisans in Basketball this year was far greater than in any preceding year. More girls had an opportunity to play, as an Intra-Mural Basketball tournament was held to find which organization boasted the finest team in the school.

The French Club won the championship after valiant battles with the numerous opposing teams.

The Inter-Class tournament was won, for the first time in many years, by the speedy and invincible Freshmen.

Top Row—Barlow, Gray, Phillips, Dakin.

Activities

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Goose Hangs High," a three-act play by Lewis Beach, was presented by the Senior Class on the afternoon of December third and on the evening of the fourth. The fact that every seat in the house was sold was sufficient evidence that the Class of '26 had a reputation for good acting, due to the fine work in direction of Miss Juliet Barker. Mr. Vernon Utzinger was responsible for the lovely stage-setting and lighting effects.

The Ingalls family is a typical American family and the trials and ordeals, which the father and mother had to meet, are experienced in most homes today. "Granny" furnishes plenty of opposition to anything the twins suggest. The eldest son, Hugh, is engaged to the charming Dagmar, but as the story progresses events threaten to put off their marriage. But, of course it all ends very happily.

Each part was taken exceptionally well, which shows that the class of blue and copper has talent in many lines.

"A MID-SUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM"

For some time there has been a wish on the part of a few in our high school to present Shakespeare's "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream", but the character parts were a bit too difficult for the music department alone, and the music was certainly beyond the powers of the English department. So it happened that early in the fall of 1925, the proposition of joining forces on such a presentation came about. It was brought before the two departments, and the Elgin High School Players voted to be responsible for the speaking parts and the staging, while the Music department should have charge of the rest.

Such a happy combination was effected, and after several interruptions by "our epidemics" the month of March saw regular rehearsals in full swing.

Feeling that such a production was worthy of two good-sized audiences, we engaged the new Masonic Auditorium for the evenings of April 8th and 9th. The play is a delightful combination of romance and nonsense in plot, with charming dances and effective singing. Hearing the famous Mendelssohn Wedding March in its original setting was a delight to all, and the fact that the music had been made the subject for memory tests in the grades, made it the more enjoyed by the youngsters.

The more serious characters in the play were presented with much real thought and emotion, showing careful training and wise casting. The nonsense of the rude mechanics in rehearsing their "tragical comedy" afforded merry relief, as well as the grotesqueness of the elves and fairies.

The Elgin High School Players find that they made a popular and worthy choice as their first presentation, and the music department adds another laurel to its many years' successes.

The by-products of such a production are many, the development of responsibility and the enlarging of the personality of each participant often carries over for years to come. We trust this first attempt of the Elgin High School Players will rate high with all succeeding productions, and be a happy memory for all who saw it, or took part in it.

THE COMEDY CONCERT

The annual Comedy Concert was given this year on the afternoon and evening of April 16. The "stunt night" in which every student is given an opportunity to perform, afforded the highest degree of entertainment in every act.

The event is sponsored by the Mirror Board, for the benefit of the school paper, the Mirror. All the proceeds are turned over to this fund. While few stunts were turned in for the program those that were given brought much favorable comment from the large audience. The entertainment was a success, both financially and as to the way in which it was given.

The acts this year were very largely made up of combinations of music and comedy. Take-offs on several well known stories also were very numerous on the program.

"R. C. II" was a very clever little act, with plenty of comedy afforded by the noisy parrot. The story was based on Robinson Crusoe's adventures.

The Home Economics Club was represented on the program by "A Culinary Band" which was given by twenty girls who are members of the club.

"The Shooting of Dan McGrew" was a pantomime presentation of the famous poem. Plenty of entertainment and fun was derived from this.

The experiences of a modern home-seeking male were well portrayed in a comic fashion in the stunt entitled "Wanted—A Wife". This act also was carried out in pantomime.

"Bluebeard's Eighth Wife" was another comedy presented in a fine manner, by a lively cast.

"The Orphans of the Storm" was a clever little take-off on the picture of the same name. The act even included the singing of the famous "Rueben, Rueben, I've been thinking", by a horse.

Rhyme and Rhythm found its way into the evening's entertainment when "Thompson's Court Room Scene" was given. This stunt was most original, and met with the hearty approval of the audience.

"Mutt and Jeff" presenting a pair of comedians, drew much laughter from the audience with their snappy jokes.

"The Three Navigators" was another stunt which combined the musical with the comedy, with a little dancing thrown in for good measure.

"Romeo Romes Along" made a big hit with the audience in a few minutes of humorous dialogue, and comedy. This was put on by two girls.

Tumbling, comedy, and music all found their way into the act called "Dope and Dopey" which was presented by two young gents.

Another before the curtain act employing humorous dialogue was that of "The Fraternity Barge"

Radio transmitting and cartooning proved to be the feature of the program because of its novelty. This was presented in the mystic act called the "Sapolio Brothers".

The High School Orchestra furnished music in between the acts of the performance, under the direction of Miss Stocking.

Top Row—Teschke, Dakin, Kirkpatrick, Helman, Utzinger.

THE DEBATING TEAM

Interest and enthusiasm in debating was started last year by the formation of a debating club. This year a varsity team was chosen from any who wished to try out for it. Of these, eight were decided upon by Mr. Utzinger and Miss Barker, six of whom made up the regular affirmative and negative teams.

These teams were composed of entirely new material, as only one member had ever debated before.

The question for debate throughout the season was: Resolved: That Congress should have the power by a two-thirds vote to pass legislature declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.

The schedule included dual debates with Rockford on March 18, DeKalb on March 25, and Marengo at a later date.

The varsity team for this year was:

Affirmative
- Margaret Goble
- Philip Dakin
- Eda Bach
- Harter Kirkpatrick

Negative
- Helen McMahon
- Gerald Helman
- Almore Tesche
- Ellen Shew

THE PUBLIC SPEAKING DEPARTMENT

This is a course that is steadily increasing in necessity and value.

As time has progressed so has speech. At present it is necessary for a worker among the populace to know how to speak and what to say. Thus the high school graduate ought to be prepared to talk, as well as write, his way through life.

The one year Public Speaking Course has been and is open to Juniors and Seniors. Each semester shows more students taking advantage of the chance to better their delivery and speech. This past year has been very successful in this department. A greater interest and desire for the course has been aroused and more students are taking this study than in previous years.

Bashful, shy, stuttering students are transformed into public speakers of ease and conversational delivery. Out of the classes come debaters of fiery talents, speakers who have given clever announcements, and readers of exceptional quality. It teaches one to "Stand up! Speak up! and Shut up!", with the purpose of educating students to speak before an audience in an intelligent and natural manner.

Perhaps the greatest fun and interest is in the debates. Formal debates are held, in the classes, on subjects of interest and value to the school. Proposed projects are discussed pro and con. Thus this is not only a course in debate but a broadening experience for a well balanced student.

As the interest and classes increase, the student body will profit by producing students of better speech and the goal of Public Speaking will soon be reached.

SCHOOL DANCES

The school dances this year were given under the supervision of the Student council. They were held on the last Friday of every month and were proven to be very successful by the large attendance.

A large dance was given the Wednesday before Christmas, which was the special event of this kind of the year. Siff's orchestra furnished very good music, and candy canes, balloons, and various other favors were enjoyed. A prize waltz had been planned by the Student Council. After many exhibitions and much deliberation, Miss Janet Dykes and Mr. Lloyd Watson were chosen as the best waltzers in E. H. S.

The Student Council came to the conclusion that more enjoyable dances could be given if a small admittance fee would be paid. We gave this a try and now, at the end of the year, we all agree that this plan was a huge success, and our unanimous vote is "more dances".

FOOTBALL "E" MEN'S BANQUET

The domestic science classes under the direction of Miss Roe, gave their annual "E" Men's banquet in the library of E. H. S. As usual, it was a big success with the boys, and they reported a wonderful time and a wonderful dinner.

Coaches Adams, Wilson and Coutchie gave very interesting talks, and other speakers of the evening were: Mr. Goble, Mr. Fairchild, Earl Britton, Dr. James Tobin, Captain-elect Kerber, and Ex-captain Tenney.

This occasion was chosen for the election of the heavyweight football captain, and Carl Kerber was elected to lead the boys through 1926.

The menu consisted of the following:

Fruit Cocktail and Wafers

Rolled Swiss Steak — Mashed Potatoes and Gravy
Celery — Olives — Pickles
Florida Salad
Apple Pie ala mode — Hot Rolls
Coffee

BAND CONCERT

It is a fine thing for a high school to be able to boast of a band, and we are extremely fortunate in being able to boast of two very fine ones. Our bands are well organized and well directed. Miss Stocking, the director of the girls' band, has been an enthusiastic and hard working leader, and Mr. Laska has ably directed the boys' band.

Last year a band concert was presented and the returns were large and the work was given much praise. The same plan was used this year and the band profited greatly by the concert. The program given was varied, and well presented, and everyone who attended the concert praised it highly.

G. A. C. BANQUET

Every mother's and daughter's party has always proved to be a big success when sponsored by the G. A. C. and everyone demanded another. This time it turned out in the form of a banquet, and it certainly was a fine one.

Eleanor Lea was a very able toastmistress, and speeches were given by captains of the various teams. A very interesting program for the evening was arranged, and included vocal selections by Miss Boettcher, violin selections by Miss Marjorie Ballard, and stunts by a group of girls.

This occasion was chosen for the presentation of a hammered silver pin to Miss Jessie Vaughn, who submitted the best yell to the G. A. C.

A very enjoyable menu was served and the mothers, and daughters had an equally good time.

MENU

Roast Beef — Mashed Potatoes and Gravy
G. A. C. Special Salad
Buttered Rolls — Pickles and Olives
Ice Cream and Cake — Coffee

1925 COMMENCEMENT

The merriment of graduation week was at its height. The Juniors were giving their annual prom to the Seniors. The gym was transformed into a bower of pastel bows and streamers and the young people danced merrily to the music of the Black Hawk orchestra of Aurora. The happy party ended with a grand march led by Hayward Biggers, the Junior class president.

Our program for the week was completely filled, and the next thing we knew, the Seniors were entertaining the Juniors and the faculty. Beljean's orchestra furnished the music and many special numbers were enjoyed. The Seniors realized that this was the last time they would entertain at the Elgin High School but were happy in the thought that this last affair was a huge success.

All forgot their sorrows over leaving school, their dignity and many other things which Seniors possess, and never a merrier group descended upon Oak Ridge. The day was pleasantly occupied with games, canoeing and swimming, not to mention the gorgeous picnic supper which was quickly disposed of by the dignified Seniors.

Class day at last. Very near the end. This was the last time the Seniors would entertain the students from the auditorium platform. A delightful program was given. The will and prophecy were enjoyed immensely and everyone thought that if all class days were like this, they wouldn't mind so much, even if they were leaving Elgin High. Of course they couldn't know how the Seniors felt.

Reverend Zeigler was chosen to give the Baccalaureate sermon. He delivered a fine address and the Seniors were given a start in life. We all know there never could have been another sermon like this.

Graduation. The goal toward which we have all been working, always hopeful, always expectantly. Professor Kieknofer was the speaker of the evening. His speech was impressive and fine and was followed by the presentation of diplomas and the honor students. The class song was lovely and as the Seniors sang their hearts were filled with sad and beautiful thoughts of E. H. S. They marched out to the last strains and they were no longer Seniors but Alumni.

The Alumni reception was the last event. The music was provided by the Frivolity Five and this was the end of all the good times which had been enjoyed by the Seniors.

SENIOR BREAKFAST

Suggestions were offered in class meeting to have either a class picnic or a breakfast, during graduation week. Everyone desired something different, so the students voted on the breakfast, and a committee was appointed. Helen Burton is chairman of this committee, and she reported on the progress of her committee at the last class meeting.

The breakfast will be given at the Methodist church. Menus are being prepared and the committee will choose the most desirable one.

A program will be arranged and our class president, Lloyd Vonckx, will act as toastmaster.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Three years ago the Student Council was organized in Elgin High School and it has done admirable work.

The purpose of the council is to give a better understanding between the faculty and students and to help the students in any enterprise that has sufficient backing from the faculty.

The council meets before each class meeting to discuss the business which is necessary to be brought up.

Eleanor Lea, as President of the club, Helen Palm, as Vice-President, Helen Wing, as Secretary, and Miss Rickert as Treasurer, were the energetic officers and leaders of this year's organization of up-to-the-minute, happy, healthy girls.

A splendid spirit has been shown at all the meetings this year. Moreover, the club has directed it's funds in the purchasing of a statue of Jeanne d' Arc for the French room as well as a silk French flag, also two pictures, one of Madame Le Brun and her Daughter, and the other of Notre Dame Cathedral.

This organization of students, actors, stage-managers, and dramatic artists, was formed last fall as the first Dramatic Club of E. H. S. Membership was limited to forty-four and qualified by tryouts. Although it has been the clubs first year they have not been slow in progress. With the G. A. C. the E. H. S. Players put on two one act plays in March, "The Ghost Story" and "The Clod", both were great successes.

In April the club with the assistance of the Music Department, produced the "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" a Shakespearian Play. This was very successful and a credit to both departments.

The E. H. S. Players purchased a front curtain for the stage, a stage carpet, and made scenery flats, all of which help productions of plays, and adds to permanent equipment.

All in all the Drama Club has had a successful year.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The local Economics Club in our Elgin High School is one of the one hundred and ninety-four clubs of its kind in the United States. Magazines and club aids come to the advisors regularly to help in making the organization worth while.

The purpose of this club is to develop an appreciation of the importance of home life and also furnish an opportunity for social activities and educational lectures. Girls who have taken Home Economics during their High School course as well as any girl enrolled in either Clothing or Food classes are eligible for membership. Business meetings are held every two weeks on Wednesdays; and a party is held once every month.

The club is proud to say that last September they started out with fifty members and the paid membership has increased to two hundred. A basketball team was chosen that won second place in the Girls' Intra-mural Contest.

the direction of Miss Caryl Bacon.

The aim of this club is to further the study of Biology.

THE SENIOR LATIN CLUB

In 1920 the Senior Latin Club, one of the most peppy and lively organizations of the school was organized to increase the interest in the study of Latin and Roman customs among the members. The club which this year happened to be made up of all girls has completed a very successful year. The meetings which are held once a month at the homes of the different members were well attended and some very fine programs were enjoyed.

In December a Christmas party was held at the home of Ellen Van Voorhis. During the evening Latin songs were sung, games were enjoyed and a grab bag completed the evenings entertainment.

Dorothy Glen Beverly, Mary Moore, Caroleen Haller and Alice Tobin were hostesses at a progressive dinner on March 9. This was a new undertaking for the club and everyone agreed that it was a great success.

The year was ended with the annual picnic held at one of the parks.

Miss Linkfield is sponsor of the club.

THE JUNIOR LATIN CLUB

When the Maroon comes to view, the Junior Latin Club, consisting of the school's two Latin Three Classes, will have passed into its second year of existence, having finished a year of activities more memorable than the first.

Early in the term the members elected the following officers: Frank Bolwhann, President; Howard Moore, Vice-President; and Charles Marsh, Secretary. A word of praise is due them as they were as fine a trio of officers as could be wished for.

The meetings of the club, held primarily for interesting information on the Roman's modes of living, time for which in classes would be unavailable; and second for social purposes, were inaugurated by a meeting in the "Gym". All of the meetings are in keeping with Roman ideas which are thoroughly carried out. An elaborate Roman banquet is being planned.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club was organized this year under the leadership of the faculty members of the commercial department. Any Junior or Senior who is taking one or more commercial subjects is eligible for membership.

The main object of the club is to promote interest in the work-a-day, business world. To do this, prominent business men of Elgin speak on the various phases of modern business at the monthly meetings.

The social end of the meeting is cared for by a special committee, and since this is a commercial club it is the aim of every member to carry on the meetings in correct parliamentary form.

The sponsors of the club are Miss Cleary and Miss Reed. All commercial teachers are honorary members.

Although the club is very young great plans are made for its future betterment and progress.

THE FIRST GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The First Girls' Glee Club has completed a successful season under the direction of Miss Stocking, having sung a number of times throughout the year for various school and community programs.

Christmas caroling, for the hospitals and other public institutions was a new feature of the Glee Club this year, and was particularly appreciated by all who heard them.

Besides these programs there have been the music contests to work for. The singing parts in the "Mid-Summer Night's Dream", were taken entirely by members of the club.

Miss Stocking has developed a splendid group of singers in her Glee Club, having hardly any experienced people with which to begin the year. Credit belongs to both she and the girls for the rapid and fine progress made during this season.

The Glee Club Quartet has given many interesting entertainments, with a great deal of appreciation on the part of their audiences.

The club has also sponsored a basketball team for the intra-mural tournament. The team was the champions of Elgin High School. It was coached by Mr. D. W. Kersten.

The training and success of the club is due mainly to the intiring efforts of Mr. Liska. Although many of the present members graduate, those remaining hope to keep up the high standard set by past Glee Clubs.

The officers of the club for the present year are:

FRANK BOLWAHNN . . . . . President
MELVILLE ROCHE . . . . . Vice-President
RAY PRICE . . . . . Business Manager

THE HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

The Elgin High School Orchestra has just experienced the most successful year since its organization, having grown both in size and instrumentation.

Much of the progress made by the orchestra within the last few years is due to so many of its members having been with the organization for several years, so that they have learned the orchestra routine and become acquainted with orchestra literature from the simplest marches to such music as that written by Mendelssohn for "A Midsummer Night's Dream". While this music took many weeks of patient practice, yet the final performances certainly were highly appreciated by all who heard this delightful fairy music.

Other performances of the year included the between act music for the Class Plays, a series of three appreciation concerts for the grade school children, and no doubt the orchestra will continue the custom begun last year of playing the processional, graduation march, and recessional for the commencement exercises. There were also many performances of the entire orchestra or of groups of its members at various other school and community functions such as Parent-Teacher Association programs, and civic club banquets and entertainments. Often times these organizations made donations to the Music Department treasury, all of which were much appreciated and welcomed as a source of revenue by which music and other expenses of the department might be taken care of.

The orchestra is indebted very greatly to Miss Stocking, its leader, whose work with individuals and small groups manifested itself in the accomplishments of the orchestra as a whole.

The officers for the year 1925-26 are as follows:

Marjorie Ballard	President
Josephine Galloway	Vice-President
Alice Stafford	Secretary-Treasurer
Betty McNerney	Librarian
Lillian Goff	Assistant Librarian

THE GIRLS' BAND

With the end of the school year comes the close of another successful season for the E. H. S. Girls' Band under the direction of Miss Marguerite Stocking.

Together with the Boys' Band they opened the football season, but at the same time preparations were being made for a program of concert numbers for the Parent-Teacher's Association Convention which came in the early fall.

Then came the basketball season and the Annual Band Concert. This spring brought numerous other performances including concerts at the State Hospital, and Janesville, Wisconsin, at the invitation of the Girls' Band of that city, and its director, Mr. Jacks. An exchange concert was arranged for by our Elgin Girls' Band, so that the band members, as well as the townspeople had the privilege of hearing the two Girls' Bands perform.

This season saw the inauguration of the plan of inspection of uniforms under the able supervision of Mrs. Florence Fletcher. Though this has been the first year of its trial, the improvement in the appearance of the uniforms has been greatly noticed and the plan was considered such a good one that it will be continued with our Girls' Band, and is being considered for adoption by the Janesville Girls' Band.

The officers for the year 1925-26 are:

Virgene Hawthorne	President
Gladys Schuler	Vice-President
Edna Kowert	Secretary
Ruth Wilson	Treasurer
Michal Miller	Quartermaster
Helen McMahon	Drum Major

THE BOYS' BAND

The Boy's Band this year brought a very successful season to a fitting close when they appeared on Friday evening, March 26, in the annual band concert. The concert was the biggest job on the hands of Mr. Liska, and his thirty musicians, and they presented a fine group on the program.

Together with the Girl's Band, the fellows appeared at many of the football games to put the spirit of old Elgin High in the players, and also the crowd, that only a band can do. The band also made its appearance alternately with the Girl's Band at the basketball games.

With the number of veterans back for next year, the band is sure to have a more successful season than this year.

THE SECOND HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

The second semester of last year a "Second High School Orchestra" was organized for the purpose of giving training in ensemble playing to those who were not quite ready to undertake the difficult music played by the first orchestra. There are practically no public performances of this group, the entire time being spent in learning to follow the conductor's beat and play simple and medium grade orchestra music in time and at a reasonable tempo.

The second orchestra meets twice weekly under the direction of Miss Stocking. Usually after a year of this work the student is ready to enter the regular High School Orchestra.

The officers of 1925-26 are as follows:

William Haller	President
Bettie Klein	Vice-President
Ernest Gilomen	Secretary-Treasurer
Donald Shaw	Librarian

THE MIRROR BOARD

The Mirror Board, which consists of a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and treasurer, is appointed by the Senior Class and the Faculty, who form the Mirror Association. The two vice-presidents are seniors elected by the senior class, while the secretary and treasurer are members of the faculty chosen to represent that group. Mr. Goble, the principal of the high school, is the president ex-officio.

The chief duty of this board is that of attending to the business connected with the publication of the Mirror. They also appoint, from the class in journalistic writing, a staff who edit the paper.

As a means of raising money to help pay for the publication of the Mirror a Comedy Concert is sponsored each year by the Mirror Board. Some years it is possible to give a part of the proceeds of this concert to a scholarship loan fund, which was established by this board to aid students who may need a little assistance in getting through college. These funds are in charge of a committee consisting of the Principal of the High School, the Superintendent of Schools, and the President of the Board of Education who appoint a treasurer, who makes loans from the fund as directed by the committee.

THE MIRROR

THE MAROON

Another year has passed and with it another Maroon has been published. Each new staff endeavors to put out a better annual than the ones preceding; but while we do not claim to have done so, we have tried to do our best; more than that no one can do.

In planning the book it was most necessary to consider our budget, which from force of circumstances was lower than had been anticipated. During the year, epidemics made it impossible to carry through money-making projects planned by the Senior Class.

However, we feel we have overcome this handicap to the best of our ability, and in presenting this book to its subscribers, hope they will be pleased with our efforts.

The whole staff has worked diligently on every department and well deserve praise for their results. Every member has cooperated with me and cooperation is a vital factor in editing a book.

Besides the staff and those mentioned in "Appreciation", I wish to thank Lucile Cotton, Marie Coldevin, and Gertrude Munch.

BETTY CUTTER,
Editor-in-Chief.

The type of annual edited depends greatly upon the money alloted. The staff of '26 has been quite fortunate in this matter due to the undivided efforts of the Finance Committee, and they have my sincere appreciation. Due to their work we have been able to add special features, such as the Scenic Section and the two color plates.

I am also very appreciative of the work of Mr. Larsen. His efforts as advisor have been very helpful indeed.

In the past year the staff has made every effort to build a successful, and attractive "Maroon". They have worked together harmoniously and efficiently, and are justly proud of their work.

JACK MUNTZ,
Business Manager.

Chap Wells (to printer who has just turned waiter)—"I've found a button in my soup!"

Waiter—"Very sorry, sir; printer's error, should have been mutton."

Here lies the remains of Hambone Chowder,
Who dug his potatoes with floating powder.

A native of Florida was discussing with a Californian the qualities of their respective states.

"When the Everglades are drained," remarked the gentleman from the south, "Florida will be able to feed the whole United States."

"Get away with that small stuff. When the Californian Mts. are leveled, we'll be able to feed the world," came the reply.

"Yeh, but who'll level your mountains?" asked the man from Florida.

"The same bird that'll drain the Everglades," was the reply.

Miss Drysdale—"What was the Teapot Dome Controversy?"
Chappie Wells—"A fight among the financiers over the Teapot Dome Trust."

Celia McGill informed her father that she had made 100 in a short Chemistry quiz.

"How did that happen?" proud papa asked.

Celia with much pride replied, "Believe me, I over-worked."???

The thrill that comes once in a lifetime!
Time has passed, but I still feel its glow—
For my very soul pulsed with emotion,
The eve that I had my first beau.

OUR FACULTY

From a dish-washer to grand opera
Our Faculty includes them all:
From Irish and Swedish dialect
To the well-known eastern drawl.

Miss Reed is our pretty young deb.
All the men are on her trail,
But they have to be very careful,
For she's very thin and frail.

Mr. Utzinger is our young hero
You'll admit he knows his stuff,
But if you talk in classes
His manner is very gruff.

Miss Hubbard is our wicked vampire
She sings French songs of love,
Which so enchant our young hero
He sends her notes by a dove.

Mr. Larsen is a terrible villain
He does many a wicked deed;
And from Mr. Utzinger tries to take
The beautiful young Miss Reed.

We have "Pavlowa" in our midst;
Miss Beirsach is her name.
We all believe that some great day
She'll top the ladder of fame.

If you see a teacher with a classy sweater
Mr. Wilson it's bound to be;
I've begged and pleaded with this fine coach
To sell his checked sweater to me.

We don't need to go to Chicago
If Grand Opera we wish to hear
We've a Mary Garden right in our midst;
And it's our dean of girls, so dear.

And I must tell you about Coach Adams
And how he made all his dough,
To buy his book on sarcasm
People come in a steady flow.

We have many more nice people
In this very queer faculty of ours,
But I haven't time to tell you now
About each one and his powers.
